New England Roofing Company,
MANUFACTURERS OF
WARRENS' IMPROVED
Fire and Water Proof
Composition Roofs,
Office—7 Liberty Square, Boston.

THIS Company would respectfully solicit the attention of Builders, Architects, Manufacturers, and the Public, to this much approved system of Roofing, which has been very generally adopted in the cities of Buffalo, Cincinnati, Chicago, and St. Louis, and within the past year in Boston and vicinity, where it has given entire satisfaction. It is rapidly superseding the use of all other kinds of Roof, and is confidently offered to the Public, as a mode of Roofing unobjectionable in every important particular.

The materials employed are none of them subject to corrosion or rust, like the metals, nor will they expand and contract with the changes of temperature, like tin and iron; nor shrink in dry weather, and swell in damp, like shingles, and other wood coverings.

It combines in a greater degree than any other Fire Proof Roof now in use, the valuable requisites of cheapness, durability, and security, against both Fire and Water.

These Roofs require an inclination of not more than one inch to the foot; leaving it in good condition for a promenade for drying purposes; and is of particular advantage to adjoining buildings in the event of Fire.

They are afforded at a much less price than any other Fire Proof Roof. The amount of material saved, and which would be used (by the old method) in raising the walls, and framing a steep Roof, still further reduces the cost of the building.

Another advantage gained, is the securing of rooms in the Upper Story, of the same dimensions and quite as commodious, as those in the lower part of the Building. The expense of a Three Story building, with this improvement, not being greater than that of a building of two stories with the pitched roof. There is a further saving in the cost of gutters.

These roofs are not affected by the jar of machinery—like those of Tin or Slate.

The Composition is so prepared that it is not affected by the extremes of heat or cold.

In case of injury from any cause whatever, no roof is so easily or quickly repaired.

Further information obtained by applying at either of the Company's Offices.

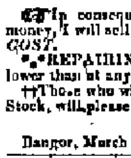
PATENT SELF HEATING
SMOOTHING IRONS!



MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements; but females have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them, in a very great degree from the excessive and fatiguing labor of Ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and despatch—one cent's worth of dry charcoal supplies fuel for a whole day's constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Hatters' and Tailors' Irons are constructed upon the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

Correspondence of the Whig and Courier.

City of St. Anthony,
Minnesota Territory, April 28, 1855.

Having promised you a communication now and then, I comply with that promise, although with some reluctance in the first place, not being at all in the habit of appearing in print, and being also fully impressed that no State or Territory of the Union has more variety and important privileges within its reach, developed and yet to be brought out, than Maine. God bless my own, my native State! But yet, I must acknowledge no one person or place has all the advantages; and no portion of the West yet opened contains so many requisites to make a happy home as this territory.

I shall not here go into detail to prove my assertions, but merely state that for health of climate, I believe Minnesota an improvement upon any other part of the West, being, as a whole, free from fever and ague, with better water and purer air, and also superior in its agricultural advantages to any portion of New England. I do not advise those who are well enough off in health and means to leave, but to improve and be contented with the privileges within their reach at home.

The immigration to this Territory at this time is much and makes it inconvenient to all crowding, as they do, at this season of the year the rail cars, steamboats and hotels, producing high prices, short feed, bad air, and more or less sickness. To those who are inclined to emigrate here, I would advise to come alone next fall, and select their location, and make preparations before bringing their families.

As to the comparative attractions of different sections of this Territory, the traveller westward, if he has not previously and definitely made up his mind, where to find a home, is likely to become bewildered by the diversity of advice forced upon him at the length of the road, and after he reaches the frontier. At the railroad depots, he is in peril of being torn to pieces by the vehemence and impudence of scores of officious runners, and if in some tavern, bar room, or steamboat cabin, he ventures the inquiry, "Which portion of the West is best for settlers?" he will summon into activity a full chorus of busy tongues. Each pleading has some separate section, and claiming for it advantages which render it pre-eminent, the very centre and focus of attraction, and if deaf to the oft-repeated caution that Minnesota is too cold, too far north, he finds his way up the Mississippi, he will hear the cry of "in here!" and "out there!" raised and re-echoed.

Every actual settler is anxious for neighbors, every business man is interested for an increase of population in his own locality, every land speculator or proprietor of a town site of course "has land to sell."

I will throw out a few hints which may be of use to some, among those who are determined to press toward the great North-West. It is easy to see, that, other things being equal, the strip of land bordering either side of the Mississippi, would be first chosen, and, accordingly, it will be found that it is already taken up. When that strip is occupied for the distance of half a day's drive from the river, the next most desirable portions will be a similar distance on each side of the Minnesota river and in the valley of the St. Croix, those streams being the only navigable tributaries of the Mississippi. As the small streams furnish some water privileges and are frequently bordered by rich bottom lands or valuable timber, they, too, are sure to be taken at an early day. From what information is within reach, I am inclined to think that the largest body of good farming lands in the Territory, lies between Rum river and the Iowa line. It includes the principal western tributaries of the Mississippi within the Territory, and the Sioux treaty of 1851.

Those who desire to settle on lands where the pine lumber interests will furnish them a market for surplus produce, I would direct to the region bordering on the Mississippi above the Falls of St. Anthony. To those who would prefer woodland and fertile rolling prairie, abounding in small streams, let them turn aside into the southern parts of Minnesota.

As to the fertility of the soil, I am unable to learn that there is any very great difference between the above-named sections. They all alike produce well. Waste or barren lands are found here and there, but the farmers who have settled in these different parts are all satisfied with the choice they have made, and each is enthusiastic in praise of his own locality. If a new comer were to ask my advice as to what portion of Minnesota he had best select for himself, I should be troubled for an answer. I could point in every direction, and tell of unoccupied lands, pleasantly situated and holding out to industry the promise of abundant harvests. I could direct the mechanic or professional man to a hundred different points of interest, where villages are springing into vigorous existence, and where skill and talent are called for, to mould the material and direct the social and material interests of an enterprising population. Yours, T. S.

The Difference between Talking and Acting.

The following article, by a writer in the Portland Advertiser, so well expresses our own ideas, that we make room for it to the exclusion of original matter. It places in a strong light the false position of those who profess that they are ready to do battle for the right, and yet have more regard for the name under which they are to fight than for the success of the cause.

Shall Kansas be a Free State?—Bangor Journal.

No, sir!—certainly not!—if the counsels and course of your Journal and of those like you are adopted and sustained by the people! What would be your indignation and your denunciations of the violence, fraud and outrages of Missouri ruffians, who have rushed in and overcome the resident settlers, if on the same page that records your earnest and decided rebuke, you set forth in equally earnest language your favorite doctrine that there must not be any concert of action, and union in purpose, and yielding of old prejudices and party names, but that everything must remain as at the beginning, and that the mighty questions of freedom and slavery, right, and justice, fair dealing and long established compromises, can never present any points or any momentous issues which can authorize a Whig or a Democrat to unite in action with any one who will not wear the same livery of party. What are these great words worth, if the moment you attempt to carry them into practical operation, you shrink back like a frightened turtle into the impenetrable shell of old party prejudices and exclusiveness.

Take the case of the Kansas outrages. Newspapers like the Bangor Journal are foremost among those who denounce these acts. They are full of indignation, and warm and earnest in their denunciations. They call upon the freemen of the North to rebuke and resist such violations of honor, good faith and common right. "Fine words, mighty fine words"—and yet one decided act is worth a bushel of them. Upon paper, they talk well. Kansas must never come in as a slave State—Never! let the consequences be what they may! The North must be prepared to meet it. It is the great issue of the country, and everything clearly indicates that all minor and other matters must give way before it. And yet, when we come to the modus operandi—the how—when we begin to marshal the forces and to plan the battle, and to close the ranks for the grand battle of freedom, our valiant compeers and worthy compatriots are all at once conscientiously scrupulous about bearing arms. They see in the company some one, armed to the teeth, it is true, and feeling all that we feel, but he remembers that in 1840 he refused to drink hard cider with him, or in other years advanced an idea in favor of free trade or doubted the absolute necessity of a national bank, or opposed the organizations of the Whig party, and therefore he will ground arms and give up Kansas and everything else, rather than fight in the same ranks with a former opponent. To be sure, they say, these outrages are manifest—they must be resisted. Honor, duty, all call upon us as men and freemen to stand for the right and to swear never to desert our post. But then the integrity of the whig party, "where is that to go?"—what will become of our consistency and our old name, and can we political Jews have anything to do with these free soil Samaritans? And so when the time comes to act, they are nowhere in the battle.—They are good for shouting and for windy speeches and up to the point of action, all right—but then comes the very pinch of the game.—All before is well as preparation—but not worth a brass farthing, if it ends in words.

Now we ask, in all good nature and honesty, is it worth while to insist on maintaining the old Whig party, in its name, and with all its old organization, to act entirely independently of every other person and go into the vital, living, momentous issues which are pressing upon us, with the demand for a battle with the other worn out old democratic party, upon the shelved questions of former years? Does honor or duty require us to yield up all we feel, all we hope and all we are determined to do, to vindicate the North and Northern rights—and to resist the iniquity and wrong of forcing new slave States into the Union? Can the old Whig party, as a national united party, do anything efficiently on this question? When the Southern Whig Senators in Congress went into secret caucus with Douglas at their head, and without consulting with their Northern brethren, or by word or sign indicating their purpose, unitedly and eagerly agreed with the originators of the wicked scheme, to stand by them, and to aid them in violating pledged faith by the repeal of the Missouri compromise, the Whig party was forever destroyed by this fatal stab of its own children.

It was impossible for any Northern Whig who had any self respect, any just sense of his rights, or any real or heartfelt opposition to the final triumph of the slave power, to strive to keep up longer an organization with those who had then shown that the interests of slavery were paramount to all and every other consideration, and far above all party ties or obligations. And are we in Maine to go on to our knees to these southern slaveholders and beg of them to permit us still to be hewers of wood and drawers of water to them? There can be no national Whig party unless it is essentially pro-slavery. The Southern Whigs have so willed and forced us into that position, and the Whig party in the North can at best be but a fragment—a residuum of its former strength. It has and can have no living issue, which the people now care to discuss, or contend about. Soured and disappointed men may attempt to fan the flame, but it will not burn. The people are in earnest, and are determined to act like men of sense, and practically. They will not be contented by the fair words or protestations of those, who whilst they talk well, will be sure when the time of action arrives to stand aloof, or to give directly or indirectly, aid, assistance and comfort to the old fogyism which is the natural ally of Southern slavery.

What kind of a Congress would we next have been if the exclusive Whigs had been able to carry out their plans and purposes? And how in the world are we to save Kansas, if we follow their lead, and refuse to unite with this great party that alone can do anything effectually? The old pro slavery democratic party does not ask or desire any better or more efficient allies than the straight-out exclusive whigs. Together, they make the Douglas Guards of slavery, and it makes very little difference to the little leader whether his men wear the white or red uniform. Draped in either they can aim fatally at Liberty.

The Virginia Election takes place next week on Thursday (24th inst.) The Governor, other State officers, members of Congress, and of the Legislature, are to be elected. Mr Wise in a late speech stated that he had spoken 148 hours in the canvass, and expressed his conviction that he would be elected by 11,000 majority. The Know Nothings claim a majority of 30,000. Mr Flournoy, the Know Nothing candidate for Governor, makes no speeches, but leaves the whole matter in the hands of his party friends.

The Discovery of Antediluvian Remains.

In relation to the recent discovery of the bones of some antediluvian monster, in this city, of which we gave some account in our paper of Monday, the Mercury of the same day has the following statement of subsequent developments. The indications are that a discovery very remarkable for this section of the Union, has been made:

Hearing of the discovery, Dr. A. C. Hamlin set to work excavating the deposit of clay in which they were found, and has succeeded in bringing to light the entire bones of one leg, and various other bones, which may be seen at his office. Among these is a part of the pelvis, or perhaps the ossa innominata, whose greatest breadth is near two feet, and the series of bones in the leg make the entire length of that limb not less than ten feet. If this animal can be assimilated to the remains of the megalosaurus or the plesiosaurus found in other localities, the whole length of the animal would reach fifty feet, with a height of not less than fourteen feet. Of the teeth not enough have been as yet discovered to determine whether the animal was carnivorous or only graminivorous. The bones are, some of them, in an excellent state of preservation. Indeed, what seems to be the marrow is found in many of them, and one lump of clear marrow weighing some two pounds and preserving the impression of the bone which contained it has been found.

We are glad to learn that Dr. Hamlin is to have oversight of the further excavations at the point where the bones have been found—the officers of the Railroad Company and the contractors being anxious to give all possible facilities for the discovery of any further remains which may be there deposited. From those which have already been obtained, Dr. H. has arranged the bones of an enormous leg, or rather flipper, showing that if the animal belonged to the saurian tribe, as is supposed, it must have been thirty or forty feet in length. Dr H. has forwarded drawings of some of the principal bones to one of the most distinguished naturalists in the country—Professor Agassiz of Cambridge.

We should say that with the exception of the vertebrae, few of the bones yet found are petrified.

Rev. C. H. A. Johnson, whose death was recorded in the Whig and Courier of the 11th instant, insured his life in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company—B. Plummer, agent for Bangor—on the 8th of November, 1849, for the sum of $1200. On the 8th of November, 1853, he called on the agent and wished to surrender his policy to the company, giving as a reason that he could not spare the money required to pay the premium. It was suggested to him that he had better borrow the money, which he did not like to do. The agent offered to loan him the money necessary to meet the premium, which he did. About a month from that time he called and paid the loan, but was then suffering from a severe cold, which settled upon his lungs and terminated his life as above reported. Mr. Johnson has left a family of several children, who would have been left helpless and destitute, but for the life policy, which had been annually renewed.

Colton's Great Atlas.—We would call the attention of our readers to this superb collection of maps. Universal testimony goes to show that they are unsurpassed. The design of the projectors was and is to render the work best of the class in the world. We have before us testimonials from many of the eminent men of this country, saying after full examination, that the undertaking is unparalleled, and its execution worthy of all praise. The size is imperial folio—the engraving is on steel, and gives town lines, an attempt to do which has never before been made, in great scale atlas as this. There are 175 maps accompanied with descriptions, from one to eight pages to each map. It will be good for a generation—all that can be desired. Every man who is able to purchase it should have one. History is almost valueless without maps. The man who attempts to read history or current events without a knowledge of topography finds his acquisitions a confused mass of rubbish. None are so learned as not to need, every day, such a work at their hand for reference. Some of our best-known citizens have already ordered the work, and many more who have not seen it will be glad of an opportunity to do so.

Father Cummings's Fortune.—In relation to the fortune which has recently fallen to Rev. Mr Cummings of the Portland Christian Mirror, the "State of Maine" says:

The story is this Mrs Cummings, the wife of Father Cummings, is a sister of the late Jas. Johnson, of the firm of Johnson, Sewall & Co., whose property is estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 Mr J. died without leaving a will, and there are five heirs to the property, so that the share which falls to Father Cummings will be between $60,000 and $80,000.

There is no man in this community by whom such a legacy would be better used. A little anecdote has come to our knowledge which illustrates the character of the man. At the time when he bought his house on Spring st., real estate in this city was much depressed and houses sold at very low rates. Notwithstanding this fact, Father Cummings gave $200 more for the house than any one else would offer, considering it worth the amount. Not long after, through the influence of the railroad, and other improvements, real estate rose in value, and Father Cummings, unwilling to make gain out of such an event, sent $300 more to the gentleman of whom he purchased the house. If this is not true benevolence, we do not know what is.

The Expedition for the Relief of Dr. Kane is nearly ready for sailing. A bark of 327 tons, and a propeller of 250 will go upon the expedition amply provided with two years rations. The two vessels will carry 300 tons of Pittston (Pa.) anthracite coal, for the use of the propellers and for ordinary consumption.—Should more be needed, abundant supplies can be obtained at Disco, on the coast of Greenland, where Inglefield, the English navigator, found it to exist in abundance, it being only necessary to dig it out from the shore. The number of men going out on this expedition will be forty-seven, including four officers to each vessel.—Lieut. H. J. Hartstene, formerly commander of the steamship Illinois, is to command the expedition. Lieut. Charles C. Simms to command the tender. Passed midshipmen—Watson Smith, Wm. S. Lovell, Joseph P. Fyffe, and first Assistant Engineer, Herman Newell. One of the Surgeons is a younger son of Judge Kane, of Philadelphia, Dr. John K. Kane, who joins in the search for his brother. Mr Lovell was one of the officers in the expedition under Lieut. De Haven.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Rotation of Crops. The Albany (N. Y.) Knickerbocker says that there is a man in Greenbush who believes in rotation of crops. One year he raises nothing, the next year weeds.

Doing a City. A correspondent of the Providence Journal communicates the following instance of Yankee energy, in "doing matters":

"I noticed a capital article in your paper of Monday, copied from the New York Times, entitled "Doing a City," and it so vividly recalled to my mind parties of travellers I have often met, I could not refrain from dropping you a line on the subject. I am sorry to say our countrymen are more famous for thus rapidly "doing a city," than any other nation whatever. When in Egypt, we met a party of three American gentlemen, who were doing up places with a vengeance. For instance, they arrived at Cairo at noon of one day. That afternoon they raced through the streets of the city so full as it is of original characteristics but to which our hurrying fellow countrymen could devote but a few hours. The next day beheld the party scampering off to the Pyramids which they succeeded in "doing up" in a few hours' so that they were able to return to Shepherd's Hotel in season for dinner at six o'clock. Early the next morning they were off for Alexandria, declaring that they had "enough of Egypt."

To Constantinople and its magnificent environs, to the unrivaled beauties of the Bosphorus and the charms of the "sweet waters" of Europe and Asia, they devoted three days, during which time it rained incessantly, and they pronounced themselves wearied out with that city which generally has such a charm for most travellers. But, Mr. Editor, the strangest thing in connection with these travellers is yet to come, one of them, after their return, wrote a book, recording his adventures in the East!"

What War Costs. In thirteen days, the allies rained on Sebastopol 780,000 balls averaging 45 pounds in weight, making a daily shower of 2,700,000 lbs., worth at the rate English pig iron is selling at (let alone transportation and manufacture) $314,380. If the cannon balls fired from the Allied lines during the thirteen days, were rolled into rail bars, weighing 60 pounds to yard, the bars would extend three hundred and thirty-two miles; or if laid as a railroad, would suffice for a single track from New York to Albany with all the necessary turnouts. It is estimated that 4,380,000 lbs. of powder was required to push the iron. At 15 cents per pound, this cost $702,000. Lives lost not counted.—New York Mirror.

Expedition to the Feejee Islands.—The schooner Tickler, a fine fast sailing vessel of 129 tons, commanded by Capt. George Hubbard, sailed from this port yesterday for the Feejee Islands and other ports in the Pacific, on a trading voyage, and it is expected will be absent three or four years. Her beauty of model and manner of fitting out has attracted considerable attention for some days. She has considerable depth of hold, and her bulwarks have been raised to prepare her for the heavy seas she will be likely to encounter. She is armed with six guns, (two eight pounders and four swivels) a large number of pistols and breech loading rifles, with the requisite quantity of ammunition. Her complement consists of eight persons, captain, two mates, four seamen, and steward.

On Thursday, some wiseacre lodged a complaint with Collector Peaslee that the Tickler was fitting out for a slaving expedition. The complaint was turned over to the United States District Attorney, B. F. Hallett, Esq., and officers were sent on board to prevent any disposition of vessel or cargo, and a thorough examination was made, and the result of which was that the vessel was released upon bonds being given to the amount of over 60,000 that she should not be engaged in the slave trade, and that she sails with no evil intent against any nation with which the United States are at peace. Many of our first merchants volunteered themselves as bondsmen. Capt. Hubbard is connected with the first families in Boston, and also with Lord Lyndhurst of England.—Boston Chronicle.

A revolving battery has been invented and patented by Messrs. Shaw & Ames, of Baltimore. It consists of a brass cylinder, revolving horizontally, and containing any number of chambers, with a stationary barrel. It is loaded, primed, fired and swabbed, all with one movement. The Baltimore Republican says: "The battery which we saw, was of a miniature size, carrying an inch ball, and was discharged eighty times in one minute. The larger batteries are expected to work more slowly. A battery carrying a four pound ball, or canister and grape of the same dimensions, can be discharged fifty times per minute."

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, For the Cure of Consumption.

THE proprietor of this medicine was himself, many years ago reduced so low as to be given up by his physicians and friends, in the last stage of Consumption. When all hopes of ever getting well had fled, he was strongly recommended to use a syrup made from an old Indian receipt, which succeeded in effectually curing him. The family physician and a large number of respectable gentlemen can testify to the facts of this case, and soon the Pulmonic Syrup obtained a reputation never equalled in that section of the country. Creating, as this case did, a sensation second to that only of a miracle, Dr Schenck was waited upon by many similarly afflicted, to whom he administered the Syrup with the same beneficial results. In fact, such was the notoriety of this medicine, that eminent physicians had their attention drawn toward the many recommendations of it, from having witnessed its curative powers, and freely extended the hand of friendship and encouragement to Dr. Schenck, and introduced the medicine to the public, and used it in their daily practice.

No other medicine operates upon the system in the manner that the Pulmonic Syrup does. It produces a healthy action upon the morbid parts, by purifying them from disease, it promotes the expectoration, allays the cough, ripens the matter on the lungs, and when it is discharged, it heals the opening that the breaking of the tubercles or abscess produces, and the lungs become sound and resume the performance of their natural functions. It also soothes the irritated portion of the lungs and other organs, and thus restores these parts to health. A superior property the medicine possesses over all others, is that it contains no opium, calomel, or any other deleterious medicine.

In 1844 Dr Schenck removed from Flemington New Jersey, to Philadelphia, and commenced the practice of his profession, where he soon acquired a reputation excelled by none, in curing a disease that has heretofore been deemed incurable, and he has since then daily exhibited to the world incontestible evidence of his success.

Both of his parents died with Consumption, which appears to have been an hereditary disease with his father's family. All his brothers and sisters except one, died early of this disease, none of them but the one brother, reaching the age of twenty.

This left nearly the last of his family, he naturally felt some alarm as one after another were consigned to the silent tomb by this fell destroyer.

VOLUNTARY TESTIMONY.

We, the subscribers, residents of Flemington, do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Dr. J. H. Schenck. He was attacked by disease; which, as we believe, terminated in Pulmonary Consumption, under the operation of which he was reduced so low as to be unable to leave his bed for a long time, and to all appearance was past recovery. He is now perfectly well—his cough and fever have left him, and we feel justified in declaring it as our belief that these salutary effects have resulted from the use of the Pulmonic Syrup.

Four to six will purge thoroughly all corrupt and acrimonious humors from the alimentary canal.

Important to Pill Takers.

Every one who is in the habit of taking pills will find RADWAY'S REGULATOR the most pleasant, safe, and effectual regulator of the Bowels, Liver, Pancreas, and the most certain Purifier of the Blood in use.

One of Radway's Regulators is superior, in point of medical strength and efficacy, to six of the most popular and best approved cathartic pills.

Radway's Regulator.

Radway's Regulators are most carefully prepared from extracts and gums of trees, plants, roots and herbs. There are no pills in use that will act upon the Liver, Pancreas, Bowels, the Salivary Glands and Nerves, so pleasantly and effectually as the R. R. REGULATORS. No pills can be taken for any length of time with the same safety to the constitution; for, instead of debilitating the system by powerful and drastic purging, they act pleasantly upon the bowels, and impart strength to every nerve and tissue of the body.

Regulators vs. Pills.

We are continually asked, What is the difference between Radway's Regulators and ordinary pills?

We answer that pills, as they are ordinary prepared and sold by different manufacturers, are generally of two kinds—those which operate on the bowels merely, called purgative pills, and those which excite the secretion of the liver, and are called mercurial or liver pills. Radway's Regulators resemble pills merely in shape, but differ in every other characteristic. They act not only on the bowels, but on the liver, skin, pancreas, and kidneys, regulating each organ to a healthy action. They are not drastic, and never give pain as most purgative pills do; they stimulate the liver without endangering the patient with salivation, as mercurial pills do, containing no minerals in their composition, they are harmless when used for a length of time. They are tasteless, being enveloped in an elegant coating of gum. 1 to 3 regulate, 3 to 6 purge—good at all times.

As a Family Physic

RADWAY'S REGULATORS are the most innocent, safe, mild and pleasant pills in use. They are a quick and certain cure for Costiveness, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Kidney Complaint, Jaundice, Head Aches, Nervousness, Melancholy, Diseases of the Bladder.

Female Complaints,

Leucorrhœa, Fluor Albus, Whites and Irregularities of all kinds.

Billious Diseases,

Bile on the stomach, Bilious Cholic, Enlargement of the Spleen, and all Chronic Affections of the Liver and Kidneys.

R. R. R. REMEDIES are sold by Druggists every where.

For great cures performed in a short time by R. R. Relief, see next week's paper. R. R. R. Remedies act quick—the moment they are taken or applied their health relieving efficacy is experienced.

CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

FOR COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Piles, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy action. They will do it, and the heartburn, bodyburn, and soulburn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

FOR A FOUL STOMACH, or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to the system.

FOR NERVOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, NAUSEA, Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out from the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders because your stomach is foul.

FOR SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. Patients! your duty to society forbids that you should parade yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing.

TO PURIFY THE BLOOD, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious Affections arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vitiate the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhœa, prevails. Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhœa, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, and all Inflammatory Fevers are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely.

As a DINNER PILL, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed.

The Most Successful Remedy.

REV. WALTER CLARKE'S

Great European Cough Remedy,

—OR—

Universal Cough Mixture,

IS unquestionably the best remedy for Coughs and Chronic Pulmonary diseases ever discovered. Read the following certificates, and remember they are all from persons of first rate respectability, and they all live in this State, and are willing to answer all enquiries addressed to them—Read and judge for yourselves. They are selected from a multitude of others.

From Dr. John Brown, Liberty, Me

DEAR SIR—I have made use of your European Cough Remedy for a cough with which I have been afflicted for some time, to my entire satisfaction, and have also employed it in my practice with the happiest results, and am fully convinced that it is one of the best medicines in use for what it is recommended. JOHN BROWN, M D

Miss HUNNEWELL, of Scarborough, had for two years and ten months been afflicted with a most distressing cough, with extreme pressure of the lungs, and other painful symptoms. During this time she had employed good physicians, and taken many of the popular advertised medicines without experiencing any permanent benefit. Many nights she was obliged to sit up for hours, not being able to breathe lying down, and her friends despaired of her recovery. Last June she was induced to try Rev. W. Clarke's Great European Cough Remedy. A trial bottle, 25 cts, greatly relieved her, and encouraged her to try a large one, 75 cts, and to the astonishment of all who knew her these two bottles, without any other medicine whatever, completely restored her to health, which she continues to enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunnewell hold themselves ready to answer all enquiries respecting the above extraordinary cure, and are satisfied that the European Cough Mixture is the best remedy known for Coughs, and disorders of the Chest and Lungs and as such they recommend it to the afflicted.

They also state that Mr. Watson, one of their neighbors, who was considered by his friends to be in consumption, was persuaded to try the European Cough Remedy, and the result was a rapid recovery.

Remarkable Cure of Phthisic, with severe Cough, communicated by Mr. Brewster, Postmaster at Curtis Corner, Aug. 29th, 1853. Rev. Walter Clarke—Dear Sir: Mr. Samuel Shaw, residing in Greene, Kennebec county, Me., has been afflicted with the Phthisic for a number of years. For the past winter he was so distressed for breath that he could not lay down. At last hearing of the European Cough Remedy, he sent for a bottle and commenced taking it. He was greatly relieved by the first dose, and from that time he rested well at night. A few bottles completed the cure, and he now desires to recommend the medicine to others, as he is fully assured that it is worthy of the utmost confidence.

The following has just been received from John Dresser, Esq., agent for Paris, Me, dated Nov 8, 1853.

Dear Sir—You will recollect that when you were here I had a severe cough of three months standing, I had tried all the cough medicines I could obtain without success. Your medicine has cured it. It has also cured many of my neighbors. Please send me some more medicine immediately. Yours, &c., JOHN DRESSER.

Rev. T. Oliver, West Waterville, testifies to the extraordinary cure of a lady, who, to all appearance, was in the last stage of consumption, so that it was thought she could live but a short time. A single bottle cured her cough, and she speedily recovered. Bro. Oliver states that he knows another person who a long time had been afflicted with the Phthisic, with severe cough, &c., who was completely cured by two bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture.

DR. ORDWAY'S

HUMOR DISCOVERY

IS daily effecting more cures of Humoral Diseases than all other medicines together.

Its effects are new and wonderful, removing obstructions from the liver, opening the pores of the skin, carrying off the morbid matter, relieving the side and allgone feelings of the stomach, and removing low spirits and despondency, which is the result of disease.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.—a fair trial will convince you there is nothing like it.

FOR CANKEROUS HUMORS,—it is the surest remedy ever offered.

One widow lady in Lawrence, who has been troubled with CANCER for years, by taking two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS.—A gentleman says that it was the only medicine which cured him.

FOR KIDNEY DIFFICULTIES,—it is spoken of in the highest terms.

A young man was sick so much with Asthma he had to leave college; three bottles cured him and he has now resumed his studies.

One lady in Salem was cured of Periodical Sick Head Ache, by the use of two bottles.
